

Since signing up for the "Do Not Call List" meal times have been much more pleasant at home. We rarely receive telemarketing calls now. Before the list, we would get anywhere from 10 to 30 calls a day. And they would leave voicemail as well. It got so bad I wanted to turn my phone off. Please don't let them call. I don't want them calling me any more.